Density of School-Age Children, Kansas City School District

IFF conducts independent research that enables nonprofit organizations, foundations, and government agencies to make informed decisions about resource allocation and policy initiatives. Please see www.iff.org/research for more information.

Sources: US Census, Eari, Missouri Department of Elementary & Secondary Education, National Center for Education Statistics

Children Ages 5-17 Per Square Mile
- Less Than 150
- 151 - 300
- 301 - 450
- 450 - 600
- Greater Than 600

School Type
- □ Charter
- ◇ District: Signature
- ○ District: Neighborhood
- ▲ Private

MSIP Designation
- ● No Data
- ☑ Accredited with Distinction
- ▼ Accredited
- ◯ Provisional
- ▼ Unaccredited

Kansas City Metropolitan Area School Districts
- School Districts
- Study Area
- Kansas City Boundary

Study Area
- Platte County School Dist.
- North Kansas City School Dist.
- Liberty School Dist.
- Raytown School Dist.
- Independence School Dist.
- Lee's Summit School Dist.
- Granby School Dist.
Percentage of School-Age Children Below 185% Federal Poverty Level

Sources: US Census, Eari, Missouri Department of Elementary & Secondary Education, National Center for Education Statistics

IFF conducts independent research that enables nonprofit organizations, foundations, and government agencies to make informed decisions about resource allocation and policy initiatives. Please see www.iff.org/research for more information.
Kansas City School District Highest-Need Areas
Rank based on 2014-15 Service Gaps

Study Area Rankings for Grades K-12
- 1-6 (Highest Need)
- 7-12
- 13-19
- Study Area
- Parks

School Type
- Charter
- District: Signature
- District: Neighborhood
- Private

MSIP Designation
- No Data
- Accredited with Distinction
- Accredited
- Provisional
- Unaccredited

Sources: US Census, Eari, Missouri Department of Elementary & Secondary Education, National Center for Education Statistics

IFF conducts independent research that enables nonprofit organizations, foundations, and government agencies to make informed decisions about resource allocation and policy initiatives. Please see www.iff.org/research for more information.
Kansas City School District Highest-Need Areas, Grades K-5
Rank based on 2014-15 Service Gaps

School Type

- Charter
- District: Signature
- District: Neighborhood
- Private

MSIP Designation

- No Data
- Accredited with Distinction
- Accredited
- Provisional
- Unaccredited

Study Area Rankings for Grades K-5

- 1-6 (Highest Need)
- 7-12
- 13-19
- Study Area
- Parks

Sources: US Census, Eari, Missouri Department of Elementary & Secondary Education, National Center for Education Statistics

IFF conducts independent research that enables nonprofit organizations, foundations, and government agencies to make informed decisions about resource allocation and policy initiatives. Please see www.iff.org/research for more information.
Kansas City School District Highest-Need Areas, Grades 6-8
Rank based on 2014-15 Service Gaps

Study Area Rankings for Grades 6-8
- 1-6 (Highest Need)
- 7-12
- 13-19
- Study Area
- Parks

School Type
- □ Charter
- ◊ District: Signature
- ○ District: Neighborhood
- ▲ Private

MSIP Designation
- ■ No Data
- ◇ Accredited with Distinction
- □ Accredited
- ◆ Provisional
- ○ Unaccredited

Sources: US Census, Eari, Missouri Department of Elementary & Secondary Education, National Center for Education Statistics
IFF conducts independent research that enables nonprofit organizations, foundations, and government agencies to make informed decisions about resource allocation and policy initiatives. Please see www.iff.org/research for more information.
Kansas City School District Highest-Need Areas, Grades 9-12

Rank based on 2014-15 Service Gaps

Study Area Rankings for Grades 9-12
- 1-6 (Highest Need)
- 7-12
- 13-19
- Study Area
- Parks

School Type
- District: Signature
- District: Neighborhood
- Private
- Charter

MSIP Designation
- No Data
- Accredited with Distinction
- Accredited
- Provisional
- Unaccredited

Sources: US Census, Eari, Missouri Department of Elementary & Secondary Education, National Center for Education Statistics

IFF conducts independent research that enables nonprofit organizations, foundations, and government agencies to make informed decisions about resource allocation and policy initiatives. Please see www.iff.org/research for more information.