

IFF Equitable Community Development Principles

- community residents and stakeholders engage in visioning and implementation
- build and preserve local capacity, assets and wealth
- advance development guided by an inclusive community vision
- ensure that equitable community development addresses the social determinants of health beyond affordable housing and economic development
- bridge growth and equitable opportunity with a long-term commitment of resources and time with local community partners.